

Chris Hanke

Chris Hanke serves as a Human Resources Consultant for the Shared Services Alliance, drawing on 25 years of experience in education, including leadership roles such as Superintendent, Assistant Superintendent, and Special Education Supervisor for Garfield Heights City Schools. Chris currently supports districts with Title IX and Title VI investigations, student and staff disciplinary matters, and federal grant management. His passion lies in helping school systems create positive, equitable experiences for students and families.