Discussion: Ms. Brewster brought up that the percentages to the operating budget and the Permanent Improvement Fund can change. Dr. Thompson clarified that they can change, but no less than 20% can be put into the Permanent Improvement Fund. Once the COPS are issued and a repayment amount is known, the percentages will be adjusted. Ms. Brewster said community members are not on board with an earned income tax. Mrs. Grassi reminded her that they are voting to give the public a chance to vote and personal feelings should be put aside.
