

INDIAN HILL EXEMPTED VILLAGE SCHOOL DISTRICT
CLASS OF 2011

Dear Parents,

I am pleased to present the Class of 2011 profile. This class has many accomplishments, talents and gifts that have been fostered, developed, recognized and celebrated over the course of their high school career.

Their hard work, perseverance, self-discipline, creativity, and initiative have been rewarded with the promise of unlimited opportunities at colleges and universities across the world, the armed services, or enrollment in specialized post-secondary programs.

Parents and family, teachers, counselors, coaches and our entire school community are proud of the Class of 2011 for what they have accomplished in the classroom, on the stage, in the athletic arena and in the personal and varied challenges they have successfully met and overcome to reach the milestone of graduation.

We are also very proud of these young men and women's generous spirit, their good humor, and the kindness and compassion we have seen them extend to others. The Class of 2011 completed over 19,000 hours of community service, learning to give back to their community and improving the lives of others.

The Indian Hill Exempted Village School has a clear mission: develop each student's maximum potential; prepare students to successfully compete on a global stage with a command of 21st century skill; and facilitate students' growth on their path to responsible citizenship, leadership and service to others. As you read through this profile, you will see a multitude of achievements and awards of the Class of 2011 that exemplify that our District's mission is being accomplished including the following:

- Newsweek ranked Indian Hill High School as one of the top 55 high schools in the U.S. based upon college readiness.
- Among the Class of 2011 were eleven National Merit Finalists and six National Merit Commended students.
- Thirty-three percent of the Class of 2011 were accepted at US News and World Report's top 25 colleges; thirty-eight percent were accepted at Barron's Most Competitive Colleges and Universities.

Congratulations to the Class of 2011 and their families.

Jane R. Knudson, Ed.D.
Superintendent of Schools

"My hope for each of you is that you become the very best of which you are capable intellectually, with respect to the strength of your character, and in your ability to lead and influence others by your own, responsible actions. Be dependable and fulfill what you consent to do, even if it means unexpected sacrifice. Earn and maintain the trust of others by being truthful, honest and an individual of impeccable integrity. Be of value to others and your success will follow."

Jane Knudson, Ed.D.
Superintendent of Schools

"Class of 2011, because you have been so blessed in your lives, please continue to give back to the world by sharing your many gifts. Don't sit upon the shore and watch the river go by, but ride the rapids, dance the tide, and make this world a better place by getting out there and sharing your own special gifts to help others. Looking at all of you, I have a great sense of pride and a great feeling of hope for tomorrow. I expect great things from you. Our future is bright if it is in your hands."

Indian Hill has done a spectacular job preparing us for college. But education isn't the only thing we gained from Indian Hill. The personal connections we've made with our peers and teachers are just as important to us as the courses we took in high school. In terms of teachers,all went beyond just "education"--they helped us develop as people and are a part of who we are today....

Don't let the world get away with underestimating your enormous talent and potential. Set goals, take calculated risks, and push yourself beyond what you think is possible. But to do all of this, you need to take charge of your life. You can't rely on luck or fate, the world doesn't owe you any favors. It's up to you to seize opportunities by the reins and find out where they take you.

In ten years, you won't remember how many hours of sleep you lost over the Constitution project. ...But there are things about high school you will remember. You'll remember commencement, and perhaps even this night. But first and foremost, you will remember the best part of Indian Hill: the people. Being a relatively small school, we have bonded as a class in ways that a class from a larger school could not. ...We have been remarkable in our achievements: we have record-setting athletes, title-winning mock trial lawyers, nationally decorated scholars, and future Broadway stars. It is with confidence that I say that our class is destined for great things.

We've been placed in each other's paths, and for some reason we've been brought together to share this story. Maybe it's to learn from each other. Taking our lessons from high school we can go on and forge our own paths, traveling to new worlds, doing something different, and we can ...become who we were meant to be.
