

Indian Hill Exempted Village School District
Class of 2013

We are and always will be Braves

Class of 2013 Profile

Dear Parents,

I am pleased to present the Class of 2013 profile. This class has many accomplishments, interests, and talents that have been nurtured, developed, recognized, and celebrated over the course of their high school career.

Parents and family, teachers, counselors, coaches, and our entire school community are proud of the Class of 2013 for what they have accomplished. We are extremely proud of their academic achievements, their athletic prowess, and their skill in visual and performing arts. These accomplishments have been celebrated during their tenure in our schools and in awards ceremonies and graduation festivities.

The members of the Class of 2013 impressed us with their commitment to excellence, their service to our community, and their compassion for others. From the classroom to the community, the Class of 2013 has represented the very best of our school and district.

New opportunities await our graduates – in colleges, careers, and communities. While I do not know every challenge that they will encounter in the years ahead, I do know that they are prepared for those challenges and possess the knowledge, skills, and character to make a difference. Throughout their journey to graduation day, they have provided evidence of the power of choice and the determination of the human spirit.

“Paraphrased from the words of Wilferd Peterson and the late Christopher Reeve — Explore your mind, discover yourself, then give the best that is in you to our age and to our world. There are heroic possibilities waiting to be discovered in each of you. So many of our dreams at first seem impossible, then they seem improbable and finally, when we summon the will, they soon become inevitable.”

*-Mark T. Miles, Ph.D.
Superintendent of Schools*

The Indian Hill Exempted Village School District has a clear mission: develop each student's maximum potential; prepare students to successfully compete on a global stage with a command of 21st century skills; and facilitate student growth on the path to responsible citizenship, leadership, and service to others. As you read through this profile, you will see a multitude of achievements and awards earned by the Class of 2013. These exemplify that our District's mission is being accomplished, and include the following:

- Newsweek ranked Indian Hill High School as one of the top 85 high schools in the United States, based upon college readiness.
- The Class of 2013 includes eight National Merit Finalists and nine National Merit Commended students. This represents ten percent of the graduating class.
- Thirty-seven percent of the Class of 2013 were accepted at Barron's Most Competitive Colleges and Universities and 24% were accepted to the US News and World Report's top 25 colleges.
- The Class of 2013 completed over 19,000 hours of community service.

I am thankful that I crossed paths with these students and remain hopeful that our paths will cross again. Congratulations to the Class of 2013 and their families.

Mark T. Miles, Ph.D.
