Mr. Fogle discussed the Governor's Merit Scholarship, which is available to the top 5% of seniors in Ohio. Eligible students receive a $5,000 scholarship for four years to attend Ohio colleges and universities. He explained that the scholarship may be applied toward tuition and fees. This year's eligible recipients are:

- Lakyn Call (Accepted)
- Kaitlyn Clary (Accepted)
- Maia Drewett
- Dylan Ostrander
- Abigail Smigle

Additionally, Mr. Fogle noted that in celebration of Veterans Day on November 11, the district will honor local veterans at assemblies held at Ayers Elementary, the Middle School, and the High School.

He reported that the fall ELA state test results will be available on December 2. Students will take the assessment again in the spring, where it is encouraging to see the growth from the initial fall test to the spring administration.

Mr. Fogle also shared that he has begun working on a new safety grant with Dustin Pyles and recently submitted the Bus Safety Grant with Treasurer Mrs. Skulich, requesting new exterior cameras for the buses.

Enrollment numbers for the 2025–2026 school year were reported as follows:
