

Todd Puster

Todd Puster is a retired school business official with 33 years of experience and currently supports Shared Services Alliance as a senior advisor. He most recently served as Treasurer for Orange City Schools and has worked in five Ohio districts, giving him a broad perspective on educational finance and operations. Todd is the immediate past president of OASBO and was recognized as OSBA's Northeast Ohio Treasurer of the Year in 2024. A frequent presenter and writer on fiscal policy, he continues to support the profession through training, advocacy, and mentoring. His deep knowledge of Ohio school finance is widely respected across the state.