

Deanna Ray

Deanna Ray serves as a Financial Analyst for the Shared Services Alliance, bringing over a decade of experience in finance, accounting, and HR across corporate and public education sectors. She earned her Ohio School Treasurers License in September 2025. Deanna has held leadership roles in payroll, budgeting, financial reporting, and ERP implementation. Her background spans multiple industries, including manufacturing and aviation, and she is known for her analytical precision and collaborative approach. She holds an MBA in Finance and International Business from Wright State University and is committed to transparent, effective financial management in public education.